16 March

Not a good day! I feel depressed and I've got a headache. I'm needing to do something to change my mood and get rid of this pain. Last week, I'm reading an article about how smells can affect mood and even health, so at the moment I smell an orange (for the depression) and a green apple (for the headache). They smell nice but I'm not thinking that I notice a difference in how I feel! I think I'm preferring to eat something when I feel down. But I worry that I'm weighing too much. So, at the moment I have a cup of peppermint tea with lemon. The article says that the peppermint smell helps you eat less. Well, I don't know about that! A chocolate ice cream sounds pretty good right now! It's seeming that there are no easy solutions.
